

Developing Character

Learning together, we grow kind hearts and healthy minds.

Character education is more than a subject: it's learning to be a good person and a positive contributor to society (Aidan Thompson Jubilee Centre for Character and Virtues, part of the School of Education at the University of Birmingham)

Character
Mind Our intellectual virtues allow us to grow our Mind	Integrity Moral virtues develop our integrity	Making a difference Civic virtues give us opportunities to make a difference	Performance Performance virtues enable us to achieve highly
Curiosity Critical thinking Reflection	Kindness Honesty Tolerance	Contribution Collaboration Responsibility	Resilience Self-control Organisation
Curiosity- I can ask questions and explore new ideas.	Kindness- I can be caring friendly thoughtful and helpful.	Contribution- I can share my ideas, give my time and make an effort to help others.	Resilience- I can bounce back, stay strong and try again even when things are difficult.
Critical thinking- I can form my own ideas and find the best solution.	Honesty- I can tell the truth even when it is hard and admit when I am wrong.	Collaboration- I can work well others by sharing ideas and listening to everyone.	Self-control- I can stop, think and choose the right thing to do and organise myself.
Reflection- I can think about my own experiences and learn from them.	Tolerance- I can accept and respect people who are different to me.	Responsibility- I can make good choices and do the right thing.	Organisation- I can remember what I need to be successful

